Local and Personal

F. L. Baker of Amarillo, Texas, was in town this week.

E. W. Clark of Logan was here on the 26th on business.

J. W. Bond of Waco, Texas, was in town on business.

W. R. Springer of Quay, N. M. was in Tucumcari Wednesday.

W. J. Lacy, of Dalhart, Texas, spent Wednesday in town on business.

T. M. Morton of Logan, N. M. was in town one day looking after business matters.

Atty. V. W. Moore returned the first of the week from a business trip in Oklahoma.

F. W. Hunt of Chicago, Ill., spent a day or two in town this week on business.

Clabe Johnson, of the Superintendent's office visited friends in El Paso last Sunday.

The schools were closed for Thanksgiving and all of the children enjoyed the holiday.

O. J. Springer of Quay, N. M., spent Wednesday in town looking after a matter of business.

C. W. Levallaw and F. Stewart, of Topeka Kansas, were looking over Tucumcari this week.

Tom Jones, a farmer living about nine miles from Tucumcari was in town trading Monday.

G. W. Scheib returned Monday from a trip to El Paso and Carrizozo where he has been on business.

Paul Meeting and J. S. Lunsford, architects, have formed a partnership and are now working together.

All places of business in Tucumcari closed at noon Thanksgiving, and a great many of them closed all day.

Ferguson, Storekeeper for the Southwestern, was laid up for a day or so this week with a severe cold and neuralgia.

The Vienna Cafe, an up-to-date restaurant will occupy the new building on Second street just back of the Legal Tender, in a week or so.

Mr. Ferguson, Storekeeper of the Southwestern, left Wednesday night to spend Thanksgiving with his family at Alamogordo, New Mexico.

Car Foreman Laque, who has been in charge of the Car yards for a long time is shortly to be transferred to another point on the line. He intends to leave in a few days.

Chas. C. Davidson left Monday evening for Alamogordo to attend a session of the Federal Court. Mr. Davidson has several cases pending in that court.

Hon. N. V. Gallegos returned from a hunting trip twenty or thirty miles below Tucumcari Monday morning, bringing a large buck. Many of his friends enjoyed venison yesterday among them.

Paul Smith of Shelbyville, Ill., has been here this week looking at the country. He wants a farm near town, either a filing or patented land and intends to bring his family here. Smith is a farmer from Illinois.

Clarence McKnight, who has been employed with the Foxworth-Galbraith Company at this point expects to be transferred about the first of the month to Duran, New Mexico, where the Foxworth-Galbraith people are putting in a new yard.

At a box social given last Friday night for the purpose of raising money for taking care of two sick boys who are being taken care of by the City with the help of the Epworth League, something over Twenty Dollars was cleared.

The Epworth League Social at the Methodist Church on last Friday evening was pronounced an unqualified success. A select program was rendered and among the numbers given were baritone solos by Messrs Gamble and McElroy and a reading by Mrs. G. B. Acton which was highly complimented. The feature of the evening however was the contest for obtaining the longest list of names of those present in which the prize—a wild wooly animal of the Teddy-bear species, were awarded to Miss Anna DeOliviera. A very nice sum was realized which will be devoted to the charity-work of the League.

S. P. Jones, Second Vice-President of the P. Mayer Leathery Company of Pueblo, Colo., was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Thomas Flatt who has been visiting in Missouri, Arkansas and Oklahoma for the past two months, is expected home to-day.

Miss Stanley, sister of Ex-Governor Stanley of Kansas, arrived in Tucumcari Wednesday, and is the guest of Mrs. E. Fulton at the Tucumcari Academy. Miss Stanley is here looking over the situation in view of establishing a private school, and also looking for a good location for relatives from the east who wish to locate in New Mexico.

Card of Thanks.

We are grateful to our friends and neighbors who so kindly showed us many favors during the sickness of our son, John Robt. Burns. Respectfully,
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Burns.

QUALITY AND VALUE

Cheapness doesn't mean merely little money, it means value for your money. We don't advertise cheapness because that doesn't express the fact about Price Gloves. We tell you they are better in every way than these so-called cheap goods—we say they don't cost any more
